HERMIS RUNS A MILE IN 1:38

PICKS UP 133 POUNDS AND BEATS BELDAME A LENGTH.

Test Handleap Affords a Smashing Race at Brighton-Sydney Paget's Tongorder Wins Montauk Stakes-Four Favorites Reward Form Players at Brighton.

E. R. Thomas's Hermis, carrying 133 pounds, won the Test Handicap, at a mile, on the Brighton track yesterday in 1:38. He made his own pace and was ridden hard all through the stretch to beat Newton Bennington's Beldame, the great three-year-old Octagor filly, by a length. The time equalled the best record for the track, made by James R. Keene's filly, by a length. Voter, 122 pounds, in 1900.

Hermis gave one pound by the scale to Seldame and ruled favorite at 13 to 10, Beldame going back to 7 to 5. W. B. Jennings's Dainty, who had a pull in the weights, was backed down to 8 to 1, and finished third, four lengths away. Andrew Miller's Wild Thyme and E. E. Smathers's Dick Bernard went begging at long odds. The horses had barely faced the barrier when Mars Cassidy let it go. Hermis broke in front like a flash and had the rail and about a length before the others were fairly under way. One of the starter's assistants had a gripon Beldame's bridle at the time, but it was quickly released. Hermis showed the way around the lower turn, with Dick Bernard a length and a half behind him and a half a length in front of Beldame, the others trailing. Right up the backstretch Hermis rushed at a terrific gait, until Dick Bernard, after three quarters of a mile had been covered, gave way to Beldame. The latter made a bold attempt to overhaul Hermis on the far turn, but Redfern shook the Suburban winner up and he drew away

Hermis hugged the rail as he turned into the homestretch and Redfern, seeing that Beldame was under a hard drive from O'Neill, proceeded to ride Mr. Thomas's horse with all his might. As Hermis maintained his advantage to the end, the crowd of 20,000 spectators broke into wild cheering which asted until he came back to the scales, showing slight symptoms of lameness. But late on the great horse, after a examination in the paddock by a veterinary surgeon, was pronounced all right.

Under the circumstances his performance, even though he did not smash the world' record for the distance, for which a $250 silver cup had been offered, was of sterling merit. Beldame deserved unlimited credit for her brilliant race in spite of her compara tively slow beginning.

It was an auspicious opening for the annual meeting at the Beach and a most enthusiastic crowd turned out. Four favorites and a second choice were successful and the ring lost big money on all of them. Aside from the Test Handicap, the feature as the Montauk Stakes, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs. Sydney Paget's Tongorder, a 8 to 10 favorite, after leading all the way had to stand a heavy drive to win by a head from Newton Bennington's Waterside, sec end choice, who was a length and a half in front of James McLaughlin's Pasadena 13 to 1. The latter beat Buttling a head. The time was 1:14 1-5.

John J. Ryan's Reliable, with 138 pounds on his back, closed an equal second choice with "Packey" Ryan's Honiton at 16 to 5.

John A. Drake's Liberia was a disappointing favorite at 6 to 5, finishing outside of the money. Reliable broke nicely and showed the way to the wire, where he was hotly driver to win by half a length from Honiton in the fast time of 1:13. Honiton was the runner up all the way and finished a length before S. S. Brown's Auditor, 8 to 1.

Mr. Cotton's Fulminate, 8 to 5 favorite, experienced no trouble in winning the handicap steeplechase, short course. He came ome eight lengths to the good in 4:30. J W. Colt's Black Death, 13 to 5, was the second horse, three lengths before Conover, 5 to 2, E. R. Thomas's Palmbearer, 2 to 5 favorite, after a rough journey in the fifth event, at a mile and an eighth, finished third. The winner turned up in Glisten, an 8 to 1 shot, who was finely ridden by Hildebrand and finished half a length in front of Palm Reader, 12 to 1, with the favorite a length and a half back. The time was 1: 54 1-5.

H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, by Hamburg-Forget, who was said to be another Bumble Bee, caught the big money in the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half He got away poorly from the post, yet ran a fine race and finished third. F. R. Hitch-cock's Dandelion, 11 to 5 second choice, to the front after the first quarter and stayed there, winning by three lengths in 1:07 2-5. S. S. Brown's Broadcloth, 12 to 1 kept the place from the favorite by a length.

resterday there was a story in circulation longs, should provide a cracking struggle, if Mineola, Lady Amelia and Joeund all go. Fleur de Marie, Winchester, Little Butter-cup and Estella J. look promising in the first race, for two-year-olds, at six furiongs. that John J. Ryan, the "get-rich-quick" man, who owns the colt, had knocked the pins from under the bookmakers. 'According t a yarn that passed from mouth to mouth Ryan was seen talking to one of his confiwhile Persistence II., Sonoma Belle and Flexion have a chance in the sixth, for maidens. dential men in the betting ring before the race. When the latter hurried away he was followed by several hustlers who saw him et several hundred dollars on John A. Drake's such good platers as Stolen Moments, Stili-cho, Jane Holly, Hello and Ben MacDhui from whom to select the winner. The en-tries are as follows: Liberia, the favorite.

This action prompted the rumor that Ryan did not believe Reliable would win, and when Bill Jackman, a well known bookmaker, put up 5 to 1 against the big horse, the other layers quickly followed suit, the price soar-ing to sixes. Then it was, so the story goes, that Ryan's agents went the rounds, betting $500 and $1,000 at a clip in cash until Reliable had been backed down to 16 to 5, the amount of the "get-rich-quick" man's winnings being close to $35,000. But later the report was circulated that Ryan bet only $500 on the colt, according to the statement he made to a friend before the race. Ryan knew that Jesse Lewisohn had played

Reliable to the extent of $10,000, it was said and if he did not bet the amount credited to him he showed rather poor judgment, it was thought, as Reliable seemed to have been placed in a soft spot. Ryan left the track after the third race in real style. He got into an open carriage, which was driven by a colored coachman in flashy livery, and rolled away amid admiring three-year-olds and upward; d a sixteenth; 98 Stolen Moments 101 98 Jane Holly 101 100 Ernest Parham 106 105 Namtor 106 101 Bardolph 101 90 Tomcod 94 glances. He was smiling.

"Packey Ryan," another Western plunger, wagered $2,000 on his mare Honiton, who ran second to Reliable. Al Dryer, who is one of John A. Drake's hustling betting agents these days, took Liberia in this race and bet all of $10,000 on her at 2 to 1 and 9 to 5. Newton Bennington did not bet on Watersid in the Montauk Stakes.

The Test Handicap made nearly all of the heavy speculators get up and hunch themselves. Joe Yaeger did not think Hermis could beat Beldame, so he laid against Mr. Thomas's horse and bet $5,000 on the mare. The books waited in vain for the usual commission on Hermis from Thoma and Shields, but for some reason it never showed in the ring. Yeager bet $2,000 straight and $5,000 a place on Glisten in the fifth race getting 7 to 1 and 8 to 5, and cleaning up $22,000 on the result. But he dropped $10,000 on Dreamer in the last event, the ring winning heavily on the downfall of Mr. Dur yea's gelding. Dandelion, the winner of thi race, was backed by J. L. McEnnis to the extent of $2,500 at 21/2 to 1.

For the first time in many years George Wheelock, the president of the Metropolitan Turf Association, was not making book yes-terday. He has decided to rest during the present meeting and his brother William will take his place in the line. George was busy all the afternoon playing from the ground. He had $2,500 on Tongorder and oet $10,000 on Hermis. Bookmaker Harris also had a $10,000 wager on Mr. Thomas's horse. Frank Brown bet $1,000 on Audijor to show in the first race, and H. M. Ziegler had his usual $500 bet on Hermis.

Knox, Van Cleve, Neveramie, Junus Werner, Olea, Galoit, Atheirose and Katie Cromweil also ran.

Second Race—Four and a half furionga—Lucy Griffin, 110 (Knight), 20 to 1, won; Erla Lee, 103 (Fischer), 4 to 1, second; Leila Hunter, 103 (Nicol), 4 to 1, third. Time, 0:504, La Princess, Little Florence, Pharmacy, Esther Goodrich, Lady Lou. Wakefull and Geneva Lee also ran.

Time, 1:2134, Hazel H., Dr. Riley, Crime, Darcy, Feronla, Tekful, Maggie Felix, Cholee and Nan Dora also ran. Probably the hottest individual in the petting ring after the running of the last race was Sir Timothy Hurst, former umpire and referee, who is a regular at the track nowadays and pursues the novel system of playing avorites as far back as possible. Timothy saw a load of wise money going on H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, so he bet $100 on the two-year-old a place at 2 to 5. When Dreamer inished third. Hurst was fairly steaming with perspiration. As he mopped his head he said to John McCue and Wally Fessenden, who were sympathizing with him:

Sixth Race-Steeplechase; short course-Malformed creditably. Waterboy, in preparation for the Brighton Handicap on Saturday, worked a mile and a quarter at the Bay yesterday in 2:07 and a fraction. The black horse was full of his old fire and dash and Trainer Joyner signalled to his rider several times during the workout to take him up. He finished as sound as a brass bell, and those who saw the performance are willing to bet their lives that Waterboy will win the $25,000 handican. Hermis, according to E. R. Thomas after the Hermence colt had cooled out yesterday, will be a sure starter in the Brighton. Yes terday's race did him a world of good, accord-

The members of both teams will train at Brighton and will only come up to London in the morning of the meet. In order to keep their muscles in tune the athlete will do some light work on board the ship.

When asked about their chances of victory Manager Dana of Harvard said: "It is hard to say just now, but I think we are pretty sure of the 100 yards, hammer and hurdles. This year the Englishmen are strong in the quarter, half, one mile and two miles. They have a couple of good jumpers, too, but we have some good ones in that line. On the whole, I think we have a fair chance of winning. After the games some of the members of the team will do some tourlas. and Hurstbourne.

Ralph Black shipped a string of elever jumpers to Saratoga yesterday.

Haverford Cricketers in London

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, July 6 .- Fresh from their victory ver Marlborough College, the Haverford College team of cricketers arrived in London to-day. The visitors will play a team of the M. C. C., at Lord's to-morrow, after which they will enjoy a two days rest in London. Seats have been reserved for them on Friday and Saturday at Lord's to view the annual match between Eton and Harrow, which is not alone the most important school match in England, but one of the chief social functions of the London season.

In the game against the Marylebone Club to-morrow it is expected that F. H. Behlen of Philadelphia, the well known international cricketer and golfer, will captain the M. C. C. eleven. He is a member of Marylebong and is now in London. College team of cricketers arrived in London

There was no wind early in the morning, and when the tug Unique left the Atlantic Yacht Club with Henry Howard and S. W. Sleeper of the Eastern Yacht Clubs' regatta committee on board the yachts had to be towed out; but when all the boats were clear of Norton's Point a nice sailing breeze from the south struck in, which soon freshened so that the yachts sailed to the line. The Unique made the line at 3:30 o'clock, and fifteen minutes later the preparatory signal was made.

The course was east, three-fourths south, so that the wind was slmost abeam. The schooners were started at 3:35 o'clock, and the Corona led across the line. She was timed at 3:55:53. The Lasca crossed at 3:56:34. The Corona had up a small jib topsail, and the Lasca had a No. 1 jib topsail and a main topmast staysail.

On the next signal the smaller schooners were started. The Indra was first at 4:00:23. The Hope Leslie crossed at 4:00:31, and the Undercliff was handicapped a minute. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN HENLEY, England, July 6 .- The second day of the Henley Royal Regatta, which was formally opened yesterday, began this morn-ing. The regatta will continue through

ing. The regatta will continue through to-morrow.

In the seventh heat for the Diamond Sculls, A. H. Cloutte of the London Rowing Club beat Guy Rixon of the Kingston Rowing Club easily.

L. F. Scholes of the Don Rowing Club, Toronto, Canada, beat F. S. Kelly of Australia, the present holder of the Diamond Sculls. He won by four lengths in 9 minutes 11 seconds. It seconds.

It was a tremendous race. Scholes struggled over the line, a gallant but distressed winner. Kelly could not row his boat off the course. He was lifted into a launch in a fainting condition.

In the first heat of the day for the Grand Challenge cup, the New College, Oxford, eight rowed over the course alone.

in the box, the New Yorkers went after the Philadelphias for keeps this afternoon. They simply played rings around them and had them shut out up to the ninth inning, when a pair of hits, a base on balls and some care-less fielding by Browne permitted three of the Quakers to count. Mathewson pitched the first six innings, in which five singles were made off him. With a lead of nine runs, Morraw thought he would give Ames a chance. Four hits were made off the latter Fraser retired in favor of McPherson at the end of the fifth inning, nine hits having been registered against him.

because they happened to be disabled. Griff and his band are always stout of heart and do not regard themselves as beaten, as the Philadelphians appeared to do yesterday and the The fielding of the locals was weird at times, much worse than the error column day before, because a star or two was on the suggests. The New Yorks played a superb game in the field, a fumble by Browne Poor fielding by the Philadelphians gave the ninth being their only error. Dahlen the New Yorks a safe lead early yesterday. and Jilbert in particular distinguished them-Fast fielding by the New Yorks, particularly Elberfeld and Williams, who are a peerless selves, the two double plays that they made putting the Quakers out of it when they were apparently due to do something in the way of run getting.

Mertes singled in the second inning and pair around second, held the Philadelphians down all through the game. After Dougherty had made a scratch single way of run getting.

Mertes singled in the second inning and was sacrificed to second by Dahlen. Gilbert was hit by a pitched ball. Bowerman singled. scoring Mertes, sending Gilbert to second and taking second himself on the throw-in. Mathewson walked. Bresnahan singled to right, scoring Gilbert and Bowerman. In the third McGann got to first on a fumble by Hulswitt, and Mertes was safe on Doyle's muff of Gleason's throw. Both moved up on Dahlen's out. Gilbert scratched out a single and McGann counted.

In the fifth, McCormick, succeeding Mertes, singled, Dahlen flied to McGee. Gilbert and Bowerman hit safely, McCormick counting. Dooin gnade a wild throw to second to catch Bowerman napping, and Gilbert scored. Bresnahan singled, scoring Bowerman. In the seventh Devlin drew's base on balls and stole second. McGann was hit by a pitched ball. McCormick flied to Doyle. Dahlen doubled, scoring Devlin and McGann. In the eighth Devlin again walked and stole second, going to third on Dooin's wild throw and counting on McGann's hit to Hulswitt. McGann scored on Dahlen's double and Dahlen counted on Gilbert's single.

The locals got only one man to first in the first eight innings. The score:

NEW YORK.

FEHLADELFHA. n the first inning, Keeler advanced him with a sacrifice. Williams walked. Dougherty took a big lead off second and Powers threw down there. The throw was wild and the ball was fumbled by Pickering in centre field. Dougherty scored and Wiliams ran to third. He did not tenant that perch long, as Anderson singled and brought him in. Murphy's triple to the right field fence and M. Cross's single scored a run for Philadelphia in the second inning, the only run of the day for the opposition.

Plank was wild in the second inning. He gave three bases on balls. Besides, Bruce gave three bases on balls. Besides, Bruce in right field missed McGuire's fly in the sun, then threw wildly to second to head off Conroy. Hughes drove in Conroy and McGuire with a warm single. Dougherty forced Hughes, then came two bases on balls and a muff by Murphy that propelled two more men to the rubber.

Hughes's single, a bad throw by Murphy and Williams's fly to centre gave the New Yorks their run in the fourth. This was the only run the home team made off the Indian, Bruce, who went in to pitch in the third inning and held the New Yorks to three hits in six innings. PHILADELPHIA NEW YORK.

mining and held the New Yorks to three hits in six innings.

With Murphy on third and M. Cross on first in the fourth inning, and only one out, a run looked probable, but on Cross's steal of second, McGuire made a feint to throw down which lured Murphy into starting for home. Murphy was run down. Hughes and his support were a partnership that rendered the Quakers harmless from first to last. The score: PHILADELPHIA.

CYCLISTS FIGHT TO A FINISH

cent Mix-up-Men Have It Out, Stripped to the Buff and With Bare Knuckles, at Manhattan Beach-Four Rounds. Before a handful of spectators, Floyd A.

McFarland, the "Handicap King," and Charles Hadfield, another prominent cyclist, fought three and a half rounds with bare knuckles at the Manhattan Beach cycle track yester-The men were stripped to the buff, and the powerful blows delivered showed The fight, though quickly arranged, was no rough and tumble affair. It was the out-no rough and tumble affair. It was the outcome of a row last Monday at the Vailsburg track, and was a bitter contest for blood.

McFarland had the better of the encounter, but Hadfield put up a plucky and determined struggle and did not give in until compelled to do so by exhausted nature.

The mix-up last Monday which led to the pitched battle occurred after the two-thirds of a mile consolation race. Fenn was thought to be the best man in the race, and the others were anxious to trail him. Hadfield secured the coveted position behind Fenn, when McFarland came up from behind on the inside, and in racing parlance took the wheel away from him.

Fenn finished first and McFarland second. Hadfield was angry, and on the way to the training quarters struck McFarland viciously in the face. Before Mac could retailate, a spectator swung his leg over the side of a box and kicked Hadfield. The police interfered and McFarland went to his quarters vowing vengeance.

The other cyclists and handlers were aware that a storm was brewing, and were not surprised when McFarland walked up to Hadfield vesterday at the Manhattan track and said:

"I'm going to lick you."

"All right," replied Hadfield. "Let us have it out fair and square."

Arrangements were at once made for the combat. It was agreed that the rounds should be three monutes each, with one minute rest. The men were to break after clinching. Dady Voight, brother of Fred Voight, the cycling promoter, was selected as referee. O. W. Dorlon, father of Oliver Dorlon, the six day cyclist, was timekeeper.

Willie Boles and Dave McFarland's two handlers were in McFarland's corner, while Stevens looked after the interests of Hadfield.

The men stripped to fighting attire. They were as well trained as any two puglists that ever entered the ring. McFarland was taller than his opponent, but each weighs about 170 pounds. The battle ground was fire the men were to break after the his opponent, but each weighs about 170 pounds. The battle ground was taller than his opponent, but each we come of a row last Monday at the Vailsburg track, and was a bitter contest for blood.

Hadneld up, and after a wild swing he drove in a hard one to McFarland's kidneys, which need the lanky one wince.

Third Round—McFarland changed his tactics and, after leading for the head, surprised Hadneld by landing a hard one on the wind. "Learn how to hox why don't you?" said "Mae", and with that he feinted again for the head and before Hadfield had a chance to change his guard, sent in a terrible smash to the stomach.

Fourth Round—McFarland kept on leading for the head and landing on the body. In a few seconds he sent in a smasher. Hadfield reeled and grabbed the benches for support. He went to his knees, but arose before the count of ten—He was groggy and staggering and the next blow, which McFarland delivered on the solar plexas invised him. "I'm through," murmured Hadfield, as an equit, a thoroughly beaten man.

Hadfield showed the effects of the fight in a swollen nose, discolored eye and badly bruised ribs. One of his ribs was broken.
